Career Accelerator Mentorship Program™ For Engineers in a New Job

Starting a new job can be a lot of work and also very stressful!

There is always a learning curve for anyone who is starting a new job, and it often takes 6 months or even a year to become efficient at it.

“Starting a New Job the Right Way”

This program is your guide, and includes everything you need to have a successful start in your new role, be considered as a top performer, and continue accelerating your career going forward!

About your Coach

Luke currently works for Air Liquide and has a career as an engineer, several leadership roles, is now in business development, and after attending the London Business School Executive Education program is set to move into his first executive role. He started this coaching side passion/business because he found through his several leadership roles that he enjoys developing others and helping them find their career success.

Founder and CEO

Coaching Through Experience

Where Luke can really bring value in comparison to typical career coaches who may only have an HR degree is that he's been where you are and through experience as an engineer and leader understands what you do as a technical professional and what it takes to establish your value and have a significant impact on your new role!

Luke Feldmeier
Founder and CEO

Caring About Our Clients

Earl manages new client outreach for our coaches. His professional experience in the customer service industry shows his dedication and passion when it comes to helping others.

Luke is a Proud Member of Forbes Coaches Council

Because of Luke's consistent success in supporting engineers find rewarding jobs and advancing their careers, he and his coaching organization have been selected to be a member of the prestigious Forbes Coaches Council, an Invitation-Only Organization For Senior-Level Executives in the coaching industry. They are composed of respected leaders and executives who have in-depth experience and success as executive coaches.

Testimonials

“It’s difficult to navigate your career without clear roads; often times, some routes seem closed. I had an idea of where I wanted to take my career, but I couldn’t find the directions to the destination. My coach had worked with me to provide me guidance and develop objectives. The guidance helped me build confidence and skills that allowed me to steer my career in the right direction.” – Kim L.

Testimonials

“This course has some life changing powerful home truths – for you – for the people you work with, and for your organization.”

-Clayton L.

“A great resource for anyone aspiring to improve their personal acumen and do more for themselves.”

-Euan S.

Testimonials

"There are a lot of great things to say about Luke! He has been a great mentor for me. He is an active listener – carefully listens to your challenges and goals, then navigates you to reach there. Furthermore, I have found Luke more than a mentor. We've become friends with whom I can talk anything at any time. I've seen Luke picking up my call when he was with his family for a vacation. I asked him, why do you do this and how do you even manage all of that? He said it is what he enjoys doing and he likes to see others being successful. It is what he cares about. I can assure you that Luke cares about his mentees from his heart. - Faisal

"His coaching for my interview helped me build confidence to convey how my experience and skill set made me the best-suited candidate for the role. His perspective as a hiring manager was eye-opening. Something else of great value in this program is the opportunity to network with other professionals and hear about their successes and struggles to know that you are not alone." - Mayhell

Testimonials

"I was very fortunate to have had the opportunity of working with my coach during a transformative time in my career. Throughout our sessions, he continuously went above and beyond what I expected. I left each session feeling very confident about the decisions I was considering, and he gave me the tools to have the best possible chance at succeeding. I already have, and will continue to, recommend my coach to close friends and colleagues in need of a top-tier career counselor and coach." - Rishabh

"Luke is amazing at what he does! He works on your time and helps build out a plan that's suited for your needs. He does not shy away from a challenge and provides continuous support even when you stray from the original plan. He is well-spoken, knows his stuff and has a network behind him ready to help you succeed even in areas outside of his expertise. Great overall experience!" - David

Designed To Fit Your Schedule

The program was designed with the idea that its participants are already busy at work and home, so is flexible to accommodate your schedule.

Learning material can be accessed at your leisure, there are regular coaching options from Luke each week, and an aspiring community to support you.

A Community of Motivated Leaders

Through this Mastermind experience, you will be just as inspired and learn just as much through collaborating with the motivated engineers in the community as you will with the leader coaching you.
